Requests to Participate in an Iternate raduation eremony

Students may be permitted to participate in an alternate graduation ceremony before their scheduled graduation date in the following circumstances

The student is in good academic standing at VSU with a or higher P for undergraduates and a or higher P for graduate students

The student has six or fewer hours remaining in order to complete the degree

Some exceptions may be granted including those for specific cohorts of students particularly those who would usually graduate during the summer and those with internships or other required experiences that take them out of the area

Process Students eremony

Request to Participate in an Iternate raduation The form will be reviewed by